

Practice/ Activity

CIVIC

Collaboration, designing creative solutions, and engaged democracy is at the heart of civic development.

1. Have students brainstorm ideas to improve their school or neighboring community.
2. Next, have students choose one of their ideas to address together as a whole class.
3. Have students work together to determine the needs, goals, and realistic steps for putting their idea into action.
4. Take action!